

Top Notch Standards of Excellence Award Program Sponsors

Honors Presented at May 20th Awards Program

The 2010 recipients included:

Top Notch Union of the Year Recipient:

IBEW Local 481

Top Notch Contractor of the Year Recipient:

ERMCO Electric

Top Notch Training Excellence Award Recipient:

Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 440 JATC

Top Notch Labor Management Foundation Award Recipients:

Quality Connection - Representing IBEW 481 and NECA
Sheet Metal Workers Local 20 and SMACNA

The recipients were honored at the Top Notch Standards of Excellence awards program on May 20th. The awards program was attended by more than 475 labor representatives, contractors, users, owners and city and state leaders.

Each submitted award application was evaluated by a prestigious jury comprised of construction users and industry leaders. This year, the jury included:

Tom Snyder	Ivy Tech Community College
Matt Gutwein	Health and Hospital Corporation
Jim Schellinger	CSO Architects
Lewie Wallace	Purdue University
Donnie Reed	Clarian Health

The jury reviewed each application using the Top Notch Standards of Excellence as a guide. The Top Notch Standards of Excellence include industry areas such as training and continuing education, safety, productivity, industry economic development and user and owner satisfaction.

Top Notch is the largest labor/management association representing union construction in the state of Indiana. Representing more than 75,000 union tradesmen and 4,000 contractors, Top Notch is an association of diverse construction employers and labor organizations, partnering to coordinate the interests and goals of the union construction industry. Our mission is to promote the union construction industry to our customers and our community.

As the leaders of our industry, we are skilled on principle, union by choice.